

On April 10th 2019 86 Monaco International club coaches gathered at the beautiful Oasis Las Vegas Resort. In addition we had about 15 show coaches furnished by R V Country. The weather was spectacular, allowing all of us to soak up some sunshine. For this rally, other than the show coaches we had no vendors and a very few seminars, allowing the members to visit and go to some of our furnished educational meetings.

The largest attendance was at our outdoor wine tasting, sponsored by Sanders Winery in Pahrump, The ladies fashion show, a brilliant presentation by Dr. Michael Green a professor at the University of Las Vegas on the history of Las Vegas. I think the audience at this one wanted it to go on for a few more hours. We had a class on etching your wine glass, and then we christened them with a bit of bubbly. The Holts put on a great Karaoke afternoon on Friday.

John Ham headed up our intense physical exercise groups with a Horseshoe Tourney, a Put-Put Golf game and a wild Bocce Ball tournament.

We had entertainment on Friday and Saturday nights, On Friday we had a local entertainer from Vegas, Mr. T. Fox. It was quickly apparent why he had been elected Las Vegas entertainer of the year. The next night we had a return engagement by Mark Cordes, The Spouse Whisperer.

We had a lot of first timers which was great, and a rally within a rally from the Monaco Romers. All in all we had a great rally and if you missed it remember to come to the next one.
